

COOKIE POLICY

Why do we use cookies?

A cookie is a small text file made up of letters and numbers which is placed by a website on the device you use to access the internet. Cookies serve different purposes. We use the following cookies to help us to improve our website and to provide us with information about usage of the website.

Type of cookie	Purpose of cookie
Necessary	Necessary cookies help make a website usable by enabling basic functions like page navigation and access to secure areas of the website. Our website cannot function properly without these cookies.
Compliance	This cookie remembers whether you have accepted or rejected cookies.
Functional	Functional cookies help the content management system to quickly determine if you are running Javascript for any progress bar updates, identify if you have logged in to the website, and also to store 'My Production' choices and store your preference for mobile or desktop versions of the website.
Analytics	These cookies are used to collect information about how visitors use our website. We use the information to compile reports and to help us improve our website. The cookies collect information in an anonymous form, including the number of visitors to our website, where visitors have come to the website from and the pages they visited. Further information are available about these cookies here: http://www.google.co.uk/intl/en/analytics/privacyoverview.html .
Third Party	This cookie is used by Google to identify visitors using the Google +1 service.

Subject to your consent, certain third parties also place cookies on your device when you browse our website.

Please see the 'What cookies do we use?' section below for further details about the cookies that we use.

How do I change my cookie settings?

You can change your cookie preferences at any time by clicking on the 'Cookies Consent' icon located at the bottom of each webpage on our website. You can then adjust your settings.

Alternatively, most web browsers allow some control of most cookies through the browser settings. To find out more about cookies, including how to see what cookies have been set, visit www.aboutcookies.org or www.allaboutcookies.org.
